Comments to improve course

Dr. Valente is an excellent professor who is generally available to help her students understand the material. Dr. Valente is an asset to Baruch and I hope she gets recognize for all her hard work at the school. I took statistics in the past and I can gladly say that Dr. Valente helped me understand the consent/purpose a lot better with her class. I wish you all the best and thank you for being a great professor.

The Professor was well prepared and very clearly knowledgeable on the subject. I still very much disliked the subject itself but there wasn't any fault on the Professor. She was very clear with every topic and explained everything to such detail that anyone could understand. She was extremely engaging and kept the class very involved. I personally don't like group work but that wasn't the Professor's fault either. Her work was excellent. I appreciate the effort and preparation by the Professor and hope she continues to teach the way she does. She's an outstanding Professor who just happened to teach a subject I didn't particularly like.

What a wonderful Professor. I really appreciated her experience and knowledge in increasing my understanding of stats for Public Affairs.

I found the teaching method to be very helpful. I took stats over the summer and had a very hard time, this semester i am finding it much easier and feel that I am learning more. The professor is very responsive to texts and really cares that we understand the material. My only problem is that the class is kind of short and we run out of time. regardless of my final grade I would take her again.

Dr. Valente has been an absolute blessing and she has really triggered an interest for me in regards to statistics that I didn't have before. She is extremely thorough and is always available to assist.

This class was designed in a perfect way. Dr. Valente cares about ALL her students. She provides students with plenty of guidance so that they could excel in this class. She is ALWAYS available after school hours and provides detailed instruction of all material covered. There is a lot of material being covered in the class and she maximizes every minute. She is an excellent professor and all the students respect her and admire the knowledge she brings to the table. Baruch is extremely lucky to have her. Caroline

Rubia is one of the best instructors I've encountered while at Baruch. She made a difficult subject less difficult and continue to help even after class time. I wish all my Professor's were like Rubia. 5 Stars

Professor was wonderful. Only complaint is that the class was too short for the type of material presented. Would have preferred more in-class time.
